Lake Prince Woods Assisted Living cares for residents who need extra help with activities such as bathing, medications, meals, dressing, and other support services. Care is provided to residents who need more support in a private apartment with their furnishings. Lake Prince Woods Assisted Living offers a blend of support and medical assistance to help residents maintain their freedom. Licensed nurses are available 24 hours a day. Residents pay a monthly fee that includes all meals, housekeeping, personal assistance, limited transportation, social, spiritual, and recreational activities, and much more.

Lake Prince Woods is owned and operated by EveryAge, formerly United Church Homes and Services.
